

1

98 Bissell Brothers Monolith (barrel-aged ale; Bissell Brothers, ME). A decadent barley wine gracefully aged in spent bourbon barrels, this highlights toffee, vanilla, wood and stone fruit. Full-bodied with silky carbonation, the ale shows age in a well-executed, oxidized way. It has all the personality the style demands, with well-hidden abv and a savory finish.

abv: 13.5% Price: $15/500ml

2

98 Goldfinger Original Lager (lager; Goldfinger Brewing, IL). Some of the best lagers you drink are the ones that don't require a lot of thinking. Crisp, slightly sweet, earthy hops and easy drinking. It's only after a while in the glass and many sips that the well-constructed nature of the beer comes to the forefront of the mind. This is one such lager. Expertly crafted, balanced and executed, this is a special lager for everyday enjoyment.

abv: 5.2% Price: $13/16oz 4-pack

3

97 Blackberry Farm Lemon Groove (Cold IPA; Blackberry Farm Brewery, TN) An enjoyable diversion from the norm with rich lemon herb and a floral herbal quality at the forefront. The lemon comes on in additional layers, including candied peel and lemon verbena. It still finishes dry, with a lager snap. Pair with summer vegetables or a simple roasted chicken to bring out the best in both.

abv: 7.5% Price: $13/12oz 6-pack

4

97 Fiction Alternate Present (Schwarzbier; Fiction Brewing, CO). Aromas of lightly roasted dark malts carry an earthy fruitiness along with fun sweetness. The roast remains easy and allows for a crisp lager quality to pop through. Wafts of fresh marshmallow fluff come through toward the finish, giving the drink a dessert-like bent.

abv: 5.5% Price: $14/16oz 4-pack

5

97 Edmund's Oast Leather Jacket (porter; Edmund's Oast; SC). With a soft and spicy cola-like note and a slightly roasted disposition, this snazzy porter has just a touch of alcohol heat. Perfect for outdoor drinking in the swing seasons.

abv: 6.5% Price: $13/16oz 4-pack

6

97 Urban Artifact Terrible Lizard (barrel-aged ale; Urban Artifact, OH). Pouring a rich shade of royal purple, this fresh yet fermented berry-forward ale has a great amount of tartness, pucker and depth. Lightly carbonated, it offers a green raspberry note midpalate and a dry finish. It's a "stop and think about the contents of the glass" beer.

abv: 13.5% Price: $35/6.3oz 4-pack

7

97 Lamplighter Some Like it Cold (Cold IPA; Lamplighter Brewing, MA). Bursting with hop-derived tropical fruit aromas, this IPA brings juicy character to the forefront with pleasing bitterness lurking behind. Sweet vanilla and torched-sugar flavors arrive midpalate before a dry finish. Tropical vibes present, no matter the weather.

abv: 6.2% Price: $17/16oz 4-pack

8

96 Pure Project Diamond Dust (India pale ale; Pure Project, CA). Hazy of the highest order, this juicy but still bitter IPA has layers of coconut, warm citrus, tropical fruit and dankness. A thoughtful example of the style.

abv: 6.7% Price: $22/16oz 4-pack

9

96 Wren House Valley Beer (American lager; Wren House Brewing, AZ). Pure and simple, this beer is a canvas for all of its parts to shine. A soft water profile combined with sweet, crackery malt, grassy herbal hops and a crisp clean yeast finish. It takes a lot of work to make a beer simply enjoyable.

abv: 4.6% Price: $15/16oz 4-pack

10

96 Boulevard Tank 7 (Saison; Boulevard Brewing, MO). The flagship of the Missouri brewery, this lively, well-carbonated saison has some earthy hops, spicy pepper and mulled citrus on the nose and palate. A full body hides the high abv well. Pair with mussels.

abv: 8.5% Price: $16/12oz 6-pack

11

96 Great Lakes Dortmund Gold (Dortmunder; Great Lakes Brewing, OH). Pouring a deep copper with a touch of chill haze, this rich and smooth lager brings both floral hop bitterness and toasted caramel malt sweetness to the glass. A lager of distinction that pairs well with roasts of all kinds.

abv: 5.8% Price: $11/12oz 6-pack

12

96 Grimm Weisse Grimm Artisanal Ales (Hefeweizen; Grimm Artisanal Ales, NY). Break out the tall Weiss glasses and give this a vigorous pour. Spicy clove and underripe banana aromas are prominent and always present, with an herbal spiciness that grows a bit with each sip. It remains refreshing and enjoyable from start to finish.

abv: 5.5% Price: $13/16oz 4-pack

13

96 Benchtop Polotmavy 12° (Czech Ruby Lager; Benchtop Brewing, VA). A lovely dark-ruby-colored lager, this offers aromas of sweet berries and fruits mixed with caramel malt and burnt sugar. Light and easy drinking, with a slight hop-spice kick toward the finish.
abv: 4.8% Price: $15/16oz 4-pack

14

96 Samuel Adams Cold IPA (Cold IPA; Boston Beer Co., MA). From a brewery that knows how to deftly maneuver in the lager space, this well-hopped IPA is golden and clear as a bell, with a modest head that lasts and laces the glass. The earthy hops are never overwhelming but add to a noticeable bitterness that engages the olfactory senses.
abv: 6% Price: $8/12oz 6-pack

15

96 Russian River Porter (porter; Russian River Brewing, CA). This everyday drinking porter helps you look forward to every day. A slight vanilla character mixes well with a subtle dark-roast maltiness, followed by just a splash of spicy and herbal pine hops. A mix of Old World sensibility with deft hop usage. Drink with your next burger.
Abv: 5.75% Price: $20/16oz 4-pack

16

96 Amalgam Singular Realm (barrel-aged ale; Amalgam Brewing, CO). A silky-smooth imperial stout, this offers rich layers of espresso and fudge, with luscious undertones of vanilla and bourbon. Moderate carbonation with a dark-chocolate finish. Enjoy with a slice of cheesecake.
abv: 14.1% Price: $20/12oz 4-pack

17

96 Von Ebert A Night in Tallin (Baltic porter; Von Ebert Brewing, OR). This porter is just the right amount of hearty and strong, without being overpowering. Layers of dark chocolate, roasted espresso and spicy hop combine with an overall nuttiness. Complex but understated, this is one to sip and let the mind wander.
abv: 7.2% Price: $15/16oz 4-pack

18

96 Westbound & Down Louie (barrel-aged ale; Westbound & Down, CO). Lovely aromas of toffee, raisin, sweet chocolate and leather combine into a slow, enjoyable sipper of a barley wine. Warmth from the wood adds a new layer of richness. Finishes with a touch of heat but smooth.
abv: 13.9% Price: $32/8oz 4-pack

19

95 Highland Trailbound (Hazy IPA; Highland Brewing, NC). Deep straw-colored haze, this IPA has faint tropical coconut aromas paired with soft, overripe melon and a touch of candied orange. Flavors twist and evolve with each sip, letting different characteristics land at different times, leading to an enjoyable session.
abv: 5.8% Price: $11/12oz 6-pack

20

95 Alesong Raspberry Parliament (Fruit Beer; Alesong Brewing and Blending, OR). Lovely layers of raspberry from the skin and seeds to the flesh and tart juice cascade together on top of woody tannins. Robust and refined, it has a faint sweet thread that keeps acidity at bay throughout.
abv: 6.9% Price: $18/500ml

21

95 Mikerpone Step into the Freezer (Cold IPA; Mikerpone Brewing, IL). Well-balanced between the lager yeast and the hop-forward aromas and flavors associated with an India pale ale. Citrusy and dank, the hops are center stage but well-backed by a soft caramel malt that adds body and sweetness. For tailgate parties, ice fishing or anywhere a good time happens with friends in cold weather.
abv: 6.5% Price: $15/16oz 4-pack

22

95 Reuben's London Calling (English Pale Ale; Reuben's Brews, WA). Delightfully malt-forward pale ale that showcases biscuit and toasted cereal along with earthy, faintly fruity hops. An easy sipper that never lets the bitterness grow beyond pleasant and finishes clean. Put on your favorite album or the current soccer match and keep this close at hand.
abv: 4.7% Price: $14/16oz 4-pack

23

95 Perennial Saison Milieu (Saison; Perennial Artisan Ales, MO). Bright and tart, this has earthy complexity that brings forth country grass and aged hops. Golden in the glass with slight chill haze and a fluffy, big-bubbled white head, this saison makes the most of Brettanomyces by offering up a complex, tangy leather finish. A collaboration with Embrace the Funk of Nashville.
abv: 4.7% Price: $12/12oz 4-pack

24

95 New Glarus Weizen Doppelbock (Weizenbock; New Glarus Brewing, WI). Aromas of warm banana bread and a pronounced malt nuttiness, this hearty garnet lager is warming and filling. The banana esters grow as the beer warms in the glass, causing a shift in sipping toward the contemplative.
abv: NA Price: $12/12oz 6-pack

25

95 Port City Porter (porter; Port City, VA). Sometimes you just want a porter. A no frills, easy-drinking, “gonna have three at the pub before heading home” porter. With a little chocolate and coffee roast, a kiss of hops and a medium body that doesn't weigh down the palate. This is that beer.
abv: 7.2% Price: $13/12oz 6-pack

26

95 Prison City Unicorns Coupling (Cold IPA; Prison City Brewing, NY). With lively warm pineapple aromas and flavors, this Cold IPA continues to deliver with a perfumey hop bouquet and sweet malt body. Biscuit and caramel mix well, keeping bitterness at bay.
abv: 6.2% Price: NA/Draft

27

95 Metazoa Whiskers on Kittens (Vienna Lager; Metazoa Brewing, IN). Easy-drinking with earthy sweetness and spicy country hops, this Vienna lager is soft, welcoming, well-constructed and a delight to look at in the glass. The brewery donates profits of this beer (and others) to animal welfare programs.
abv: 5.1% Price: $11/16oz 4-pack

28

95 Side Project Saison du Blé (Saison; Side Project Brewing, MO). This gently tart, earthy saison makes the most of its time in wood. With some oaky tannins midpalate and on the finish, this thoughtful saison shows what time and attention can achieve. Blend number 11.
abv: 6% Price: $20/750ml

29

95 Hardywood Pils (German-style lager; Hardywood Brewery, VA). Pours golden with vibrant biscuity aromas and green, herbal hops. The hop presence builds quickly with each sip but never becomes bitter, instead leaving a pleasant earthy flavor on the palate. Finishes dry with a hint of malt sweetness.
abv: 5.2% Price: $11/12oz 6-pack

30

95 Live Oak Gold (pilsner; Live Oak Brewing, TX). Snappy hops with a soft malt profile, this is a lager for relaxation. Bring it to happy hours and parties, for quiet afternoons or loud ballparks. Well-constructed with a touch of sweet herbs near the finish, it fits into any situation and doesn't demand taste bud attention.
abv: 4.8% Price: $11/12oz 6-pack

31

94 Parish Cane Brake (Wheat Ale; Parish Brewing, LA). With sweet and pleasant wheat aromas that meld into brioche, this soft ale goes easy on the carbonation. Brewed with cane sugar, it has earthy and restrained sweetness, with pleasant flavors of lightly toasted crystals. Pair with a hot afternoon and a cooler filled with ice.
abv: 4.9% Price: $11/12oz 6-pack

32

94 Old Irving Mild Mage (English Mild; Old Irving Brewing, IL). Sweet toffee and treacle combine on a pleasant dark mild that offers up light roast coffee and a touch of hop bitterness that grows with each sip. A pub beer made to be paired with rich meals and good company.
abv: 3.6% Price: $10/16oz 4-pack

33

94 Schlafly Raspberry Hefeweizen (Fruit Beer; St. Louis Beer, MO). A soft touch of raspberry adds both color and a sweet accent to the banana and clove nature of the base beer. They harmonize to create a warm-weather refresher that should be served with a handful of berries in the glass.
abv: 4.1% Price: $10/16oz 4-pack

34

94 Wallenpaupack Largemouth (Hazy IPA; Wallenpaupack Brewery, PA). This hazy brew has the soul of a West Coast IPA. It looks the hazy part and even provides a pillowy mouthfeel. But starting at midpalate and continuing through the finish, it offers earthy, white stone fruit and an orange-peel character that sticks to the taste buds.
abv: 6.5% Price: $16/19.2oz

35

94 Bonn Place Echonacht (Schwarzbier; Bonn Place, PA). This is delightfully full of coffee and baked-chocolate notes backed by spicy, earthy hops. It finishes with faint fudginess and should be paired in the evening with a good book and solitude.
abv: NA Price: $15/16oz 4-pack

36

94 Meanwhile Secret Beach (India pale ale; Meanwhile Brewing, TX). Bitter in all the best places, this dank IPA layers on berry and orange flesh along with a sweet caramel malt and a touch of toasted country bread. Lively and looking to be paired with spicy barbeque.
abv: 6.2% Price: $17/16oz 4-pack

37

94 Lady Justice Chosen Family (ESB; Lady Justice Brewing, CO). A full-bodied and light toffee-forward ale that pours garnet brown and clear with little head. Malt nuttiness appears midpalate and dances in step with herbal, and lemony hops. Finishes super clean and refreshing and is best paired with a second pint.
abv: 5.6% Price: $12/12oz 6-pack

38

94 Highland Park High 9 IPA (India pale ale; Highland Park Brewing, CA). Created for the brewer's ninth anniversary, this IPA has many of the bright, hop-forward characteristics of the modern IPAs but without the full-bodied mouthfeel. Easy-drinking with a touch of bitterness, it's like a summer afternoon in a can.
abv: 7% Price: $20/16oz 4-pack

39

94 Derive Lost Leatherman (Dark Mild; Derive Brewing Co., OH). Fully roasted with undertones of coffee, chocolate and carbon, this pleasing dark ale, grows in intensity adding fudge to the palate, with an espresso chaser. Hearty but never overwhelming, this beer feels like it would best be sipped in a comfortable leather chair in a dimly lit room.
abv: 4.2% Price: $12/16oz 4-pack

40

93 Fulton Hazy IPA (Hazy IPA; Fulton Brewing, MN). This murky yellow, citrus-forward IPA brings on soft orange with hints of lemon blossom and lime zest. Pillowy soft with low carbonation, it's a warm-weather refresher.
abv: 6.5% Price: $14/12oz 6-pack

41

93 Goose Island Neon Beer Hug (Hazy IPA; Goose Island, IL). Boozy with tropical and dank notes, this IPA brims with personality that's well-suited for taproom visits, airport bars or anywhere a quick, assertive dose of juicy hops is needed.
abv: 7% Price: $13/12oz 6-pack

42

93 Buttonwoods Retro Innovation (ESB; Buttonwoods Brewery, RI). By using the nitronigation process, this already smooth ale becomes even easier to drink. With a rich, silky mouthfeel that doesn't weigh down the palate, earthy hops, light caramel malt, and a touch of black tea come across in a friendly, familiar manner.
abv: 4.6% Price: NA/16oz 4-pack

43

93 Pontoon Trail Marker (Fruit Beer; Pontoon Brewing, GA). Aromas of strawberry lemonade with almond blossom emerge quickly and are confirmed on the palate. This is a beer for summer twilight, a gap between lighter sips in the day and robust ones to come at night. Not too tart, not too sweet, and with toasted sugar threads, it's a lot of fun to drink.
abv: 5.2% Price: $13/16oz 4-pack

44

92 Yazoo Locale (ale; Yazoo Brewing, TN). Proof that not all low-calorie options have to be lacking in flavor or oomph, this cloudy yellow ale from Embrace the Funk has a hop-derived fruitiness and spiciness. A yeasty twang comes on midpalate and boosts up the citrus on the finish. 90 calories.
abv: 3.6% Price: $10/12oz 6-pack

45

92 The Bruery Mischief (Belgian Golden Ale; The Bruery, CA). Boozy and hop-forward, this strong golden ale has vinous qualities that come in quick and last on the palate. The earthy, waxy hops offer up herbal pleasantness, with a spicy finish.
abv: 8.5% Price: $15/16oz 4-pack

46

92 805 Cerveza (Fruit Beer; Firestone Walker, CA). A Mexican-style lager brewed with a hint of lime. Rather than from juice, the flavor tastes peel-derived, giving a little depth but not acidity. Hits the spot for liquid refreshment in relaxing situations.
abv: 4.5% Price: $11/12oz 12-pack

47

92 Common Roots Party Shirt Fridays (Fruit Beer; Common Roots, NY). This fruited IPA manages to retain much of the hop bitterness and tropical essence of the base style while getting a boost from funky tropical fruit and a strong smack of citrus. Working in tandem, the fruit and hops bring a fun experience to the palate.
abv: 6.9% Price: $19/16oz 4-pack

48

91 Industrial Arts Safety Glasses Pils (Pilsner; Industrial Arts, NY). A ballpark beer without the alcohol, this clear golden yellow pilsner has the crispness the style demands combined with an herbal and citrus hop character. 80 calories.
abv: 0.5% Price: $12/12oz 6-pack

49

91 Hell or High Watermelon (Fruit Beer; 21st Amendment, CA). A soft wheat beer body lays a wonderful canvas for cucumber-skin and melon-rind aromas that morph into pleasing watermelon after a few sips. The fruit is never overly sweet or artificial tasting, but more akin to an early-season melon or natural chewing gum.
abv: 4.9% Price: $10/12oz 6-pack

50

90 Bolero Snort Steamroom (California Common; Bolero Snort, NJ). Ruddy tan in color with a biscuity and brown country bread aroma. Follows through with a dried nut quality and a touch of earthy grass. A proper pub pint that works with a hearty lunch.
abv: 3.5% Price: NA/12oz 6-pack